1. Attendance:

The College follows strict attendance rules, to develop a sense of dedication in the students regarding their studies. Also, an active participation of students is observed in all activities of the college due to their regular presence in college. It develops a sense of punctuality in the students and acts as a dominant contributing factor in their success in all aspects of life. The college has a strict rule of maintaining 75% attendance in the lectures each semester failing which the student is debar from the exams. The rule is implemented completely impartial just and fair. The principal orients all the students and their parents about the college rules and regulations and emphasizes on the attendance policy. In each month, the attendance committee arranges a meeting of mentors with the parents and students having low attendance and insist to cover up the attendance. The students and their parents come to know their present status and hence get an opportunity to cover up the attendance in remaining months. The system is open for scrutiny and any one can apply to verify their attendance records. Thus, complete transparency is maintained in this respect. Those who do not meet the minimum attendance, letters are issued to the students and a mail to the parents to make them aware about their child's attendance status. Institute considers the sensitive cases of lower attendance like accidents, Cancer, Tuberculosis or death of a family member. Institute gives necessary concessions in attendance matters subject to prevailing rules of the University of Mumbai.

The college has succeeded since years in maintaining the attendance policy and is highly appreciated by all the stakeholders. Students highly respect the vision of the college and cooperate in full strength by adhering to the rules. To conclude, the college is amongst the rare institutes in vicinity that strictly maintain this system and hence it is the important area that qualifies to be the institutional distinctiveness.

2. Results:

KES Shroff College of Arts & Commerce has always focused on ensuring academic excellence in students. The institution has a strong culture and dedicated teachers who provide excellent teaching to the students. As per attendance requirement students maintain regularity in class which also contributes a lot in achieving good results. As a result of all these efforts, the institution has always achieved results above the university average. All the courses have shown good results from the past many years. In the year 2018-19, the UG Course BAFTMP had shown 100% pass percentage. The courses M Com in Management, B Com, BAF, BBI, BFM, BIM and BMS had given exemplary results of above 90% and none of the courses has shown a pass percentage of less than 77%. This has also helped the institution in creating a brand within society, and hence our college is most sought college by parents and students, which reflects in a very promising demand ratio at the time of admissions.
