

LANGUAGE AND COMMUNICATION SKILL

- Lingua Franca – the English language club

The laboratory was established in the academic year 2012-13. The lab is located on the 2nd floor of the main building and has 35 computers and 40 audio headsets and an LCD projector. English Language Learning application is installed on every system. They contain modules on Listening, Speaking, Reading and Writing (LSRW) skills.

These activities are held during the tutorials allotted as per the class timetable. This ensures that the activities are held in a structured manner and are conducted on all working days. For listening activities students are assigned audio-recordings and are asked to complete exercises based on these recordings. Similarly, reading material is assigned and students are asked to complete the relevant exercises. Learning levels are assigned based on their performances in the exercises. This ensures that the material caters to the learning needs of all learners coming from diverse backgrounds.

ABOUT THE CENTRE:

The KESSC's centre for foreign languages offers the ability to communicate in multiple languages is becoming more and more important in the increasingly integrated global business community. We are offering 6 languages such as French, Spanish, German, Mandarin, Korean and Japanese with all six levels of each language. We believe that language is more than just language – it is a cultural transmitter. A foreign language is a language not commonly spoken in the country of the speaker. Language and communication are essential for close relationships between people for mutual understanding, social interaction and fruitful business contacts.

Inauguration of French Language Lab

- Brief report of the event:

As French is a widely growing language around the globe and students are drawn towards it, KES SHROFF College has inaugurated a Lab for the purpose. The French lab was incorporated on 14th July 2021 with the purpose to cater the needs of students who are inquisitive towards the French language. The lab was inaugurated at 4.00 pm by our respected principal Dr. Lily Bhushan for the convenience of the students pursuing the language. The lab is well equipped with the latest technology for the betterment of the students.

Talk on Menstrual Hygiene and Health	29-8-2022	389	Women Development and Empowerment Cell

- Details of the Activity

Menstrual hygiene and health are important in order to access menstrual hygiene product to absorb flow of blood during menstruation. Poor menstrual hygiene, however can pose serious health risks like reproductive and urinary tract infection. Gender inequality, discriminatory social norms, cultural taboos, poverty and lack of basic services like toilets and sanitary products can all cause menstrual health and hygiene problem which needs to be solved. Hence to solve and make people aware about the problems our eminent speaker spoke very vividly that girls should be educated in maintaining the highest level of hygiene. She further stated that there is still a considerable segment of females who are subjected to menstrual prejudice. Menstruation and its deliberating nature, though reality is often hushed. To commemorate menstrual hygiene day, one must acknowledge that menstruation is a natural part of life and that the taboos around it must be eliminated and with this objective the event was carried out successfully

• NCC Yoga Day

• About the NCC

The NCC unit laid out in 1988 have stood the test of time and continue to meet the requirements expected of it in the current socio-economic scenario of the country. The NCC aims at developing character, comradeship, discipline, a secular outlook, the spirit of adventure and ideals of selfless service amongst young citizens. NCC focuses on both the activities that assist students give back to society and those that create a climate that encourages young Indians to enlist in the military.

• Details of the Activity

In order to regularize yoga in everyone's lives and prepare students for their final execution on International Yoga Day, the NCC, in partnership with NSS, DLLE, and Gymkhana, organised an online yoga practise on Zoom. Practice sessions took place every morning at 7:00 am. And everyone was performing the poses while viewing a film that Ayush Mantralaya had provided. The United Nations General Assembly proclaimed June 21 as International Yoga Day as a result of the Hon. PM Shri Narendra Modi's tireless efforts. Since then, the yoga day programme has been run by the Indian government's Ayush Mantraly in an effort to usher in a new era of holistic health, one in which emphasis is placed more on prevention than treatment. Our college's NCC unit does yoga practise in order to accomplish this in accordance with the directives from the DG NCC before celebrating the final day, which is the International Day of Yoga.

National Level Workshop for students on Data Visualization using Microsoft Excel'	2021-22	63	Department of Mathematics and Statistics

Brief report of the activity

- Data Visualization

During graduation students are required to submit varieties of assignments for internal or external evaluation. This workshop has trained the students in completing these assignments and presenting the data more effectively. Here they have learned which one is the appropriate diagram from a different set of data diagrams.

Data visualization is an illustration of data in graphical format such as charts, graphs, and maps etc. It is used to view and understand trends, outliers, and patterns in data.

Microsoft Excel is a Data Visualization tool- user friendly interface. We can visualize the data in different ways in Excel, it provides a relationship and comparison between two or more data sets. Better analysis means better data products and Excel is a tool for data analytics.
